And He shall Reign Forever and Ever

Psalm 110

- I. Christ's Present Rule: Jesus Christ is sitting enthroned at God's right hand (Psalm 110:1).
  - A. Christ sits enthroned – Waiting until all submit to Him (Philippians 2:9-11).
    - Whoever mocks or opposes Christ now will someday bow before Him.
  - B. Christ sits enthroned – Because He finished the work of redemption (Hebrews 1:3; 10:11-14)
    - Everything necessary for our salvation has already been fully accomplished by Christ.
  - C. Christ sits enthroned – So he can encourage us
    - When we feel condemned (Romans 8:34)
    - When we are attracted to earthly things (Colossians 3:1-2)
    - When we are tempted to quit following Christ (Hebrews 12:1-2)

- II. Christ's Future Rule: Jesus Christ will return as King and Priest forever (Psalm 110:2-7).
  - A. Christ will return and rule as King in Jerusalem (Psalm 110:2-3; Zechariah 8:3; 14:2-3)
    - World politics will someday all cease as Christ judges and all submit to Him.
  - B. Christ will return as Priest like Melchizedek as well as King (Psalm 110:4; Genesis 14:18; Hebrews 4:14; 6:20, etc.)
    - Christ's sacrifice is the basis of salvation in every age.
  - C. Christ will return to conquer all evil and all enemies forever (Psalm 110:5-7; Revelation 19:11-21).
    - God's justice and rule will someday be complete.
